Criminals At Large

By NEWGATE CALLENDAR

PAY ON THE WAY
OUT (Scribner's, $6.95). This one is even more complicated than "Greco." It is C.I.A. stuff, most of it set in Spain, where we meet a civilized Russian agent, a professional killer with a sense of humor, a beautiful freelance British agent and a C.I.A. rookie who goes off on his own and gets into a peck of trouble. Plenty of action, plenty of double-dealing and a nice brisk style. This book will not bore you.
